SUPPLEMENT TO
REPORT NO. [REDACTED] 25X1A

1. The Ministry for National Defense is the supreme military organization in the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia. It is organized as follows:

Minister for National Defense and Supreme Commander: Josip Broz Tito
Assistants to the Minister: Lieutenant General Ivan Gosnjak
Lieutenant General Savo Drljevic

Departments: Ministry of the Army
Ministry of the Navy
Army for Defense of the Regime (Armija Odbrane Poredka)
General Headquarters
Rear Echelon Command

2. The Army Air Forces are now under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of the Army but a new Air Ministry within the Ministry of National Defense is being formed.
3. Despite this system of divided commands, a centralized unit has been achieved through unification of commands, inasmuch as the Minister of National Defense is simultaneously Commander of all Army and Naval forces, as well as Minister of the Army. His first assistant is the administrative chief of the Ministry of the Army, while his second assistant is Commander of the Rear Echelon - which includes war industry and organization of supplies.

4. The Department heads are listed as follows:

Ministry of the Army	: Lieutenant General Ivan Gosnjak
Ministry of the Navy	: Minister Vicko Krstulovic
Naval Fleet - Commander	: Vice Admiral Josip Cerni
Army for Defense of the Regime (APO)	: Lieutenant General Aleksandar Rankovic, also Minister of the Interior
General Headquarters - Director	: Lieutenant General Koca Popovic
Rear Echelon Command	: Lieutenant General Savo Drljevic
Air Forces Command	: Lieutenant General Zdenko Uleplic
Political Representative of the Ministry of National Defense	: Lieutenant General Slavko Rodic

 Commander of Second Army : Lieutenant General Vaso Jovanovic
 Commander of Third Army : Lieutenant General Milan Kupresanin
 Commander of Fourth Army : Lieutenant General Dusan Kveder
 Commander of Fifth Army : Lieutenant General Kosta Nadj
 Commander of Sixth Army : Lieutenant General Mihajlo Apostolski

7. The Air Command is composed of six air divisions and one air transport division. The Command of the Air Forces school is in Delnice. The divisions are deployed as follows:

1 Air Division : Skoplje
 2 Air Division : Zagreb
 3 Air Division : Ljubljana
 4 Air Division : Sombor
 5 Air Division : Rajlovac
 6 Air Division : Mostar

The present strength of the Air Force consists of twelve air regiments and three Air Force school regiments. The Air Force transport center has its headquarters in Ljubljana where a parachute division is being formed. The anti-air defense command with headquarters in Belgrade is under the jurisdiction of the air command. The commander is Lieutenant General Danilo Tampus. Air defense of the Adriatic coast is no longer under the jurisdiction of anti-air defense but now is under the Navy command. Creation of a reserve Air Force staff is the responsibility of the "Peoples Wings" (Narodna Krila) the head of which is Lieutenant General Kado Ambrozic. Colonel Mihajlo Velimirovic is secretary. The civil air center is in Vrsac.

8. The Army for Defense of the Regime comprises the following:

KNOJ : Korpus Narodne Odbrane, which includes ten divisions. Commander - General Jovan Terzic, with headquarters in Belgrade.

KOS : Korpus Obavestajne Sluzbe, central intelligence service for offensive and defensive services, which includes the UDB.
